MEDICINAL

ease of the delicate

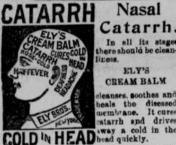

When there is disease of the delicate female organism, it is only a question of time until the general health becomes undermined. Nervousness, sleeplessness, loss of appetite and vainking spells "produce suffering almost indescribable. There can be no restoration of the general health until the local health of the womanly organism is re-established.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries offensive drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It encourages the appetite, tranquilizes the nerves and induces refreshing sleep.

"You would be surprised if you could have seen me when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's medicine and could see me now," writes Mrs. Jeanc S. Harris, of Gayville, Yankton Co., So. Dakota. "I had no appetite, was completely run down. Have had slomach trouble for years and was a nervous I could not sleep. We have spint a fot of money doctoring, but there was not one thing that I took that did me any good, except for a short time; till commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription of Golden Medical Discovery.' In three days after I commenced taking his medicines I could see a change for the better, and from that time I have steadily been getting better. Can walk or rick to any place I want to, and I feel like a new person. Since taking Dr. Pierce's medicines I can sleep all ng that and never get up tired in the moraing; can at anything and it don't hurt me."

MONTE CARLO PROVES FAILURE It looks now as if the opening of the much tou ed Maryland Monte Carlo banks, roulette wheels, outlaw racing and general saturnalia, with everything wide open, would be indefinitely post-

The promoters of the scheme to tratsform one corner of Maryland into a gambling heil have met with a snag, and that wonderful elastic charter which was to permit all sorts of opera-tions, lawful or unlawful, does not seem to be such a brilliant investment. A mint of money has been spent at Chesapeake Heach, but it looks now as if the backers of that utopian scheme had called a balt. It is whispered that internal dissentions have arisen and the aid of the courts has been invoked.
Yesterday application was made to the Circuit Court for Calvert county for the appointment of a receiver for the Chesapeake Beach Improvement Company. The bill alleges that the company can-not meet its demands and is insolvent. not meet its demands and is insolvent.
Attachments have also been filed in the Circuit Court sgainst the improve ment company's buildings for $46,000.
This puts a quietus on the outlaw winter racing which has been heralded with such a flourish of trumpets. I was announced that the race meeting would begin directly after the close at Beneings. When that time came a postponement to December 15 was given out, then another to January 1, and now the meeting is declared off for the winter. A mile track was laid out and much A mile track was laid out and much money spent in its construction, which will go for naught. The soil on which the track is built is full of quicksands and totally unfit for a race course. On a warm day houses would break through and run the risk of broken legs. Last week a mule was swallowed up in one of those places of the track up in one of these places of the track Friday night a drainage trench gave way and the whole head of the stretch

The failure of the race meeting will prove a bitter hardship to the needy horsemen who have been attracted to Chesspeake Beach by the glittering an-nouncements of the company. Small owners from as far west as St. Louis and as far north as Canada have ship-ped their horses in the faith that a meeting would be given. These mer, with their retainers and horses, are now stranded at the beach, and as most cial straits. It is estimated that some-thing like 150 men and 100 horses are now at the track.

The prospects for food and shelter for men and beast are very precarious. Most of the owners are in book for feed, and the company has issued attachments against their stock and property, to that they will lose everything they have Those who have been able to have Those who have been able to pay have been bled unmercifully. Oats pay have been bled unmercifully. Oats have been charged for at 50 cents a oushel, and hay at $26 a ton, and of inferior quality at that. There are no proper accommodations for the men, and food is hard to get.

The few horsemen who have been able to get away are bitter in their departments of the Character and the ch

Under the charter the com-pany has a kind of a kingdom of its own, in which the suthorities exercise rule as autocratic as that of the Czam It is claimed that every trivial offense of the horsemen is visited with a ridiculously heavy fine, and that the authorities are doing a land office business pe-The magnificent clubbouse which was

ENGLAND'S NEW QUEEN. The Princess of Wales, now Queen of Great Britain, was fi ty-six years old in December last. She is a splendid type of woman, and was Princess Al-exandra of Denmark prior to her mar-riage to the Prince of Wales, thirtyeight years ago.

A very pretty and romantic story is told of how the Princess of Denmark became the wife of Prince Albert Edward of Wales. The Prince chanced to be whiling away part of a long summer sfternoon with two or three congenial friends when one of them, a colonel, produced from his pocket a photograph. Prince immediately became

The Prince immediately became struck by the beauty and simplicity of the young person in the picture, and soon became possessor of it. Within a very short time he had dispatched a confidential emissary to Denmark to carry his suit to the Princess. The emissary was struck by the simplicity of the royal personages, but particularly by the grandeur and beauty of the young Princess. Because of her simple home training the Princess was best fitted for the pomp and honor of her station. She is a brilliant woman, strictly conservative, of commanding presence and stature. She was a favorite companion of the Queen and is very popular.

She was the best beloved of all the royal leaders after the Queen. Her char-acter is at once strong and sweet, and he shows a kindly consideration for all who approach her.

As a mother she is ideal. Her children were reared and educated as befits their station and their discipline is a matter of comment in England. The Mother's Favorite.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, celds, croup and whooping cough and is the best medicine mate for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other in jurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult.
